SUBJECT: PER – Performance Awards

TO: All Employees

PURPOSE: To provide Fiscal Year award guidance and information

EXPIRATION DATE: September 30, 2006

ACTION REQUIRED BY: November 15, 2005

The following guidance is provided to assist with nomination of performance/incentive awards for Fiscal Year 2006 as they relate to the year-end closing of performance evaluations covering the period of October 1, 2004 through September 30, 2005.

Area Conservationists (AC) and State office Principal Staff (PS) have been delegated the authority to approve awards for their respective staff members. The amount approved for each AC and State office Principal Staff for awards will be disseminated under a separate e-mail.

Approval of all awards and recognition must be coordinated through first-line supervisors and the appropriate AC or PS member. Nominations by employees for co-workers must be submitted through the nominee's supervisor who will serve as the reviewing official.

Guidelines governing the overall incentive awards program can be found in USDA's booklet "Guide for Employee Recognition", Form AD-1097 (12/94). Copies of this booklet may be obtained by accessing the following website: <http://www.usda.gov/da/employ/recog.htm>.

All award nominations must be submitted on U.S. Department of Agriculture, Approval of Awards, Form AD-287 (7-94). A written justification must be provided for any monetary extra effort recognition exceeding $500 or time-off award exceeding 10 hours. All justifications should be attached to Form AD-287-2 at the time of submission. Refer to Appendix C in the Guide for Employee Recognition for recommended documentation pertaining to written justifications.

Recognition of noteworthy efforts and accomplishments involving participation in Civil Rights and Equal Opportunity activities is greatly encouraged.

Recognition of noteworthy accomplishments by groups of individuals or teams is also encouraged.

The AD-287-2 form is divided into the following two categories for recognition of awards:

- Extra Effort Award
- Performance Bonus Award

The Extra Effort Award is further defined by two categories:

- Non-monetary Extra Effort Awards
- Monetary Extra Effort Awards

These types of awards are generally given for a specific or particular accomplishment that is non-recurring in nature for an assignment, project or achievement and is not necessarily required of the employee's performance. An award of this nature can be given to the individual any time throughout the year to ensure timely recognition.

Monetary Extra Effort Awards

- Extra Effort Awards - (not to exceed $500)
- Spot Award – (not to exceed $500)
Employee Invention or Suggestion – value dependent upon measurable contribution to the agency

Note: The dollar amounts annotated are to ensure consistency of awards disseminated throughout various offices for the State of Colorado.

Non-Monetary Extra Effort Awards

- Time-off Awards – Employees are eligible to receive up to 10 hours of time off; however, supervisors may only approve up to 8 hours for individual time off awards with concurrence of the appropriate AC or PS member. Recommendations for more than 8 hours must be submitted to the State Conservationist for approval. The human resources staff must be notified as soon as possible when this type of award has been approved.
- Keepsakes, certificates, plaques, etc. – Keepsakes include items presented as honorary awards, which include the Agency or Department logo and are suitable for display. Gift certificates may not exceed $100 and may only be exchanged for merchandise or services (not cash) from retail locations, restaurants, mail order businesses, etc. NRCS employees are not eligible for gift certificates.
- Non-NRCS Employees – You are encouraged to recognize private citizens (volunteers, Soil Conservationist District Employees, partners, etc.) for their efforts in support of the NRCS mission. They may receive non-monetary recognition such as thank-you notes, Certificates of Appreciation, plaques, keepsakes or gift certificates.

The Performance Bonus Award category is appropriate for recognition of a high level of performance (productivity or quality work) on a consistent basis over the course of the rating cycle. This category is defined in two categories:

- Lump Sum Performance Bonuses - $1000
- Quality Step Increases (QSIs). A QSI is an additional with-in grade increase granted. An employee may only be granted one QSI within the last 52 weeks. A QSI is not appropriate when the employee: Is in the 10th step of the general schedule; has announced retirement (and would only benefit for a limited period); and is not expected to remain in the same position or similar position at the same grade for a period long enough to benefit from the award (i.e., a career ladder position when promotion is upcoming. Nominations for quality step increases require additional documentation which describes the following:

- Actual results achieved and their linkage to established targets;
- How the employee substantially exceeded performance standards and expected work results;
- How the performance has been sustained at a high level throughout the appraisal period

In closing, all nominations for incentive awards must be submitted on Form AD-287-2 through the appropriate channel of approval and received in Human Resources by close of business on November 15, 2005.
